List of participants are placed at Annexure -A

At the outset, Special Secretary Finance-cum- Director, Treasuries & Accounts welcome the Chair and participants and apprised the chair about the background for the convening of this meeting / workshop about Personal Deposit Account/Personal Ledger Account. In his address Additional Chief Secretary Finance emphasized the need of opening of PD/PLA Accounts and listed out the advantages of PLA accounts and the disadvantages of Bank Accounts. He further mentioned about the manner in which the Bank Accounts affect the fiscal position and market borrowing of the state and implication of the continuation of the Bank Accounts. He also cited the example that at one side the state is borrowing from RBI @ 8.4% and on the other side the state funds are placed in Bank Accounts on which Banks are giving interest @ 4%. He further outlined the Role and Responsibility of SAS cadre officers in the Departments that these officers are posted in different departments to Monitor the Finances of Departments i.e. Budget, Expenditure and Accounting details and also advised all SAS cadre officers to carefully exercise their duties in this regard.

After the ACS (Finance) address, the detailed presentation was given by Joint Director (DMC) to familiarize the participants regarding opening, operation and closing of the PD/PLA accounts and the role of Administrative Department, Finance Department, Principal Accountant General and Treasuries and Accounts Department.

Representatives of some of departments such as Health, Civil Aviation, Excise and Taxation, Education, Social Justice and Empowerment, Jails & Prisons raised certain issues relating to opening of PD/PLA accounts in their departments. These issues are (i) welfare and
