Sir,

I am directed to invite your attention to the subject noted above and to say that as per delegations contained in Annexure 'B' appended to the Chapter 13 of the Punjab Civil Services Rules, Volume -II and Finance Department's instructions bearing No. 4/3(3)/79-2 FR(I) dated 11-3-1980 and No. 4/3(5)/80-2 FR-I, dated 23-7-1980, all the Administrative Departments are competent to sanction advances/withdrawals from GPF subject to the conditions as laid down in rules 13.14 and 13.29 of Punjab Civil Services Rules, Volume-II. The provisions contained in Note-2 to Annexure 'B' appended to Chapter 13 of Punjab C.S.R. Volume -II are as under:-

"Note-2: The Administrative Departments and Heads of Departments may re-delegate the powers delegated to them in the above table, on their responsibility and subject to such restrictions as they may like to impose, to any officer under them at their head-quarter offices. They may also delegate their powers on the same lines to any subordinate authority in respect of grant of temporary advances from General Provident Fund Accounts. Copies of such orders should invariably be endorsed to Finance Department and Accountant General, Haryana."

2. The matter to enhance the powers of Heads of Departments and Heads of Offices has been under consideration of the Government for some time in the past. To cut short the delay in according sanction of advances/withdrawals from the GPF to the subscribers the Governor of Haryana is pleased to re-delegate powers vested in all the Administrative Departments as per delegations contained in Annexure 'B' to all the Heads of Departments to grant advances/withdrawals from the GPF to the subscribers subject to the conditions as laid down in the rules mentioned above. They are also empowered to re-delegate powers vested in them to their subordinate authorities on their responsibility and subject to such restrictions as they may like to impose.

3. You are requested to bring these instructions to the notice of all concerned under your control.

Yours faithfully,

-sd-
